COPY OF LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, MADRAS; RC.NO.1962, K2/48 DATED 21ST NOVEMBER 1949.

SUB: Colleges - Government Arts Colleges - Pandits and Munshis - Fixation of grades.

In G.O.No.78 Finance dated 6-2-47 Government sanctioned the following revised scales of pay for Pandits and Munshis in Government Colleges.

Grade I Rs.120-5-170-7-240 plus 5 for L.Ts. Gr.II 80-5-120-10-1 and Assistant Lecturers.

The qualifications prescribed for the two grades are :-

I. Same as for Assistant Professors and Assistant Lecturers.

GradeII. A degree with the language as the main special subject plus L.T. or S.S.L.C. eligible plus an Oriental Title and a Pandits' or Secondary Grade Training.

Government also directed that the existing incumbents will be assigned to the above two grades according to their qualifications and the number of posts fixed in each grade by by Government. Those who do not possess the required qualifications will be placed in the scale of Rs.70-5-130. Subsequently a scale of Rs.100-5-140 was allowed to Pandits and Munshis who have put in more than 20 years' service.
